

The Cambridge Centre for Palestine Studies

During the autumn (Michaelmas Term) the Cambridge Centre for Palestine Studies held a series of knowledgeable events hosting numerous eloquent speakers who addressed new topics.

Before Christmas on 06.12.2024, we ended the year with a most successful symposium titled: Palestine and International Law. In line with the work of the Cambridge Centre for Palestine Studies Int. Law cluster, which held in the last few years several panels on Palestine and International Law, this event was initiated by Makram Khoury-Machool, co-organised by the University of Cambridge Lauterpacht Centre/Law Faculty and the Cambridge Centre for Palestine studies and chaired by Prof. Henning Grosse Ruse-Khan and Prof. Tor Krever.

Below is a snapshot of the activities of the Cambridge Centre for Palestine studies in Lent Term (February and March (Leading to Easter)).

Subject/Title	Name/Participants	Location/Format	Date
Palestinians in Refugee Camps in Lebanon: Forms of Cultural Resistance	Taghrid Abdulal	Hybrid Cambridge & Online	07.02.2025
Palestinian Christians and Christianity in Palestine	The Rt. Revd. (Bishop) Dr Munib Younan	Cambridge – In Person	20&21 February
Palestinians in Western Palestine (Israeli Citizens)	Several participants from Haifa, Nazareth, al-Muthallath and Cities: Acre, Haifa & Yaffa	Hybrid Cambridge & Online	28.02.2025
Role of Palestinian Women in armed Conflicts	Several participants from the 1948, 1967 territories and the Diaspora.	Hybrid Cambridge & Online	08.03.2025
Palestine & UK	A formerly prominent UK politicians/Gov. secretary & A leading Palestinian diplomat.	In Person – In Cambridge	10.03.2025
Palestine: How art mediates politics	A Palestinian Visual artist	In Person – In Cambridge	19.03.2025

admin@ccps21.org and ccps21.org@gmail.com <https://ccps21.org/04.02.2025@13:50> pm, UK